Seeking God In Prayer

“When thou shalt pray, enter into thy chamber, and having shut the door, pray to thy Father in secret” (Mt 6,6). Exterior solitude, withdrawing physically from the noise, from the occupations and preoccupations of this world is a great means, and even, at least to a certain point, an indispensable means for leading a serious interior life.

Every Rule of religious life, even of a simple secular institute, prescribes certain hours for prayer, during which every occupation must be firmly laid aside, and one must retire into solitude in order to renew one’s spirit by means of a more direct and more intense contact with God.

Without these prayerful intervals, it is a real illusion to pretend to live a spiritual life—not only a serious one, but even the most elementary one.

Every activity, no matter how important or urgent it is, must therefore be suspended at the prescribed time, so that all the strength of the soul may be concentrated in the supreme activity of prayer. These hours are sacred. A soul consecrated to God cannot, of its own initiative, subtract even a small part of this time under pain of seeing its spiritual life weaken. The time of prayer is the time to apply Jesus’ great commandment: “Seek ye therefore first the kingdom of God” (ibid. 6,33), this kingdom that we now know is within us. In order to find it, we must have these moments of retirement, solitude, total avoidance of creatures, of business and occupations. During these blessed minutes we can and should effectively “go forth” from all things and “withdraw ourselves” from all creatures to seek God hidden within us.

When the Samaritan woman asked Jesus where the Lord should be adored, He answered, “God is a spirit, and they that adore Him, must adore Him in spirit and in truth” (Jn 4,24). The Divine Master tells us that more important than the place in which we pray, is the interior spirit with which we pray, for from it alone can flow the “true adoration” of God, who is “spirit” and truth. Although retirement and material solitude are of great importance in prayer, they will not suffice if they are not accompanied by interior recollection.

St. John of the Cross says, “. . . shutting the door upon thee (that is to say, shutting thy will upon all things), pray to thy Father in secret” (SC, 1,9). This does not mean to shut only the material door of our room, but that it is necessary to close our will to everything, that is, as the Saint again says, to “shut all thy faculties upon all creatures.”

If we wish to find God in prayer, we must begin by making this very firm decision of our will: to put aside everything—all care, all preoccupation with human things—and concentrate all the powers of our souls on God alone.

We often give the prescribed time to prayer, but we do not give our hearts to it; they are still preoccupied with earthly cares.

From the Pastor

The Advent Season is as short as it can possibly be this year; we’re already a third of the way through it. What would be the fourth Sunday of Advent will be Christmas Eve. Let’s not waste the little time we have left to prepare ourselves spiritually for Christmas. If it’s been awhile since we’ve been to confession that should be high on our list of things to do. Participation at daily Mass (for those who can) is the best prayer we can offer. Gathering the family daily around the lit Advent wreath to pray the Rosary is another beautiful way to prepare spiritually for Christmas. Reflecting on how much our Lord suffered by becoming man for us should make it easier for us to sacrifice some pleasure for Him – food, drink, entertainment. And let’s not forget to attend in some way to the needy among us. It is, after all, the season for giving – in imitation of Our Lord who gave Himself to us. The sooner we can instill this lesson into the hearts of our children, the better. Have a blessed Advent.

Mary, Mother of our Divine Savior, pray for us!

Special Masses this Week

- * Tuesday, Dec. 12th, is the feast of Our Lady of Guadalupe - patroness of our diocese. The 6:30 pm Mass will be sung.
- * On Saturday, Dec. 16th, our annual “Rorate Mass” will be celebrated at 5:30 am. This is a beautiful Mass in honor of Our Lady. The church is lit entirely by candle light. If you have never been to it, please make the effort to come! You will be glad you did!

Prayer for Priestly and Religious Vocations

Priest: Let us pray for priestly and religious vocations.
All: O God, we earnestly beseech Thee to bless the Church with many priests, brothers, and sisters, who will love Thee with their whole hearts, be faithful to their vocations, and gladly spend their entire lives to teach Thy truths, serve Thy Church, and to make Thee known and loved.
Priest: Bless our families, bless our children.
All: Choose from our homes those who are needed for Thy work.
Priest: O Mary, Queen of priestly and religious vocations:
All: Pray for us. Pray for our priests, seminarians and religious. Obtain for us the grace of many more. Amen.
(Please offer your reception of Holy Communion on the first Sunday of the month for vocations)

Prayer of Parents for Priestly and Religious Vocations

O God, grant that at least one of our sons may become a priest or religious brother, and one of our daughters a religious sister. We ourselves want to live as good Christians, and to guide our children always to do what is right, so that we may receive the grace, O God, to be allowed to give Thee a holy priest, brother, or sister! Amen.
(Conclude with an Our Father, Hail Mary and Glory Be)

Around the Parish

Congratulations to Tom & Katie Scarry on the birth of their 5th child, Charles Nicholas! Charles was baptized on Dec. 8th at St. Stephen’s.

Pilgrim Virgin Statue - If you would like to have our Blessed Mother’s image spend a week with you in your home, sign up in the book store. First come, first served! You may pickup the statue on one Sunday and return it the next. By taking the image you’re agreeing to pray a family Rosary daily for the duration of the visit.
