FROM THE PASTOR

WALK FOR LIFE

January 26, 2019

Many thanks to all of the many parishioners who made it out to San Francisco last weekend for the West Coast Walk for Life! I'd like to thank particularly the drivers that helped bring the Youth Group to the city, as well as the men who volunteered to serve as a security detail for the parishioners.

While this year was more tame than last, there were still quite a number of rabid counter-protesters; far more than I ever observed at the Washington DC March for Life.

Some words, then, recalled from Fr. Savoie's sermon last week: "If the world hate you, know ye, that it hath hated me before you. If you had been of the world, the world would love its own: but because you are not of the world, but I have chosen you out of the world, therefore the world hateth you. Remember my word that I said to you: The servant is not greater than his master. If they have persecuted me, they will also persecute you: if they have kept my word, they will keep yours also.

"But all these things they will do to you for my name's sake: because they know not him who sent me. If I had not come, and spoken to them, they would not have sin; but now they have no excuse for their sin. He that hateth me, hateth my Father also. If I had not done among them the works that no other man hath done, they would not have sin; but now they have both seen and hated both me and my Father. But that the word may be fulfilled which is written in their law: They hated me without cause.

"But when the Paraclete cometh, whom I will send you from the Father, the Spirit of truth, who proceedeth from the Father, he shall give testimony of me. And you shall give testimony, because you are with me from the beginning." – John 15:19-27
