PASTOR'S COLUMN

PARKING IN THE NEIGHBORHOOD

I have had a few complaints from neighbors regarding parking on the streets in front of their homes. At times, trash cans have been moved, or driveways partially blocked by parked cars. Please be considerate of our neighbors while looking for parking in the area.

ANNUAL CENSUS SHOWS PROLIFIC GROWTH AT FSSP PARISHES

Halfway through the FSSP's annual October census, Fraternity parishes and chapels around the country report major increases in Sunday Mass attendance compared with last year.

Newer apostolates have seen dramatic growth, some doubling their numbers over the last year, such as Los Angeles, which went from 250 per Sunday to 500. The apostolate did not even have its own church until 2018, so finally settling down in a small church in San Fernando provided needed stability, contributing to the significant increase it saw this past year.

"The main obstacle right now is a lack of space," said Fr. Federico Masutti, assistant pastor of St. Vitus, talking to the Missive over the summer. His words echo the sentiment of so many other FSSP apostolates that find themselves outgrowing their buildings, but it's really a great problem to have.

"When we were at 200 people," said pastor Fr. James Fryar, "we decided to add the fourth Mass, and just adding that one Mass, from one week to the next, another 200 people came."
