Justice & Religion

Justice leads us to render to each one what is his due. But when it is a question of justice to God, we can never succeed in giving Him all that we owe Him, in making Him a suitable return for all His gifts, in paying Him the worship and homage which are due His infinite Majesty. We can fulfill our obligations to others according to justice, but we cannot do so with regard to God. However much man does, it will always be far less than what justice demands. Therefore, justice to God creates in us an urgent need to give ourselves to Him without reserve, without measure, without calculations, in other words, to make a complete gift of ourselves to God, in an attempt to render Him all the homage of which He, by His grace, has made us capable.

Because our justice is insufficient, we should have recourse to Jesus “who of God is made unto us...justice,” not only in the sense that He justified us from sin, but also in that He came upon earth to give the Father, in the name of all mankind, the worship worthy of Him. Therefore, we should seek in Jesus, in His wounds and His precious Blood, all that will make up for our insufficiency, and pay our debt to God; and we shall find it superabundantly. Even though we have consecrated ourselves to the service and worship of God, we are always useless servants, always His great debtors; this, however, should not discourage us, but should serve to stimulate us never to lessen, never to draw back in our dedication to God. At the same time, it ought to urge us to appeal with immense confidence to Jesus, our Savior and Mediator.

The virtue of religion makes us give to God the homage and worship which are His due; in this sense, it is related to the virtue of justice; however, it can never completely fulfill the requirements of justice, but it approaches these as closely as possible. Our religion can honor God worthily only when it becomes part of Christ’s religion, that is, insofar as it is united with the homage, adoration, praise, and offering which are continually rising up from the heart of Christ to His heavenly Father. Jesus was the perfect religious, in the sense that all His affections, His activity and His will were so directed to the glory of the Father and to His service that His whole life was one continual act of worship and religion. 54 Day Rosary Novena

The time is now to call upon God, through the powerful intercession of Our Lady of the Rosary, to heal our country and return it to holiness.

This is a nationwide prayer campaign called the “Novena for Our Nation.” Everyone from around the nation is encouraged to join ranks as, united, we pray the very powerful 54 Day Rosary Novena from the Feast of the Assumption on August 15 to the Feast of Our Lady of the Rosary October 7.

“There is no doubt that our beloved nation is in one of the worst crises which it has ever experienced, a profound moral crisis which generates division on all levels and results in an ever-greater more pervasive violence and killing. For Roman Catholics, who have always been known for their faith-filled patriotism, the first response to this crisis is fervent prayer and, in particular, prayer through the intercession of Our Lady of the Holy Rosary, Mary Immaculate who is also the patroness of our nation.

One of the most powerful prayers is in fact the Holy Rosary. I think, for instance, the Battle of Lepanto and the victory which was won on Oct.7, 1571, over the Saracens who were bent on conquering Christian Europe. Let us now turn to the powerful prayer of the Holy Rosary, asking Mary Immaculate to intercede with Our Lord to bring healing to our nation and to inspire in her citizens the holiness of life which alone can transform our nation.”

~ Cardinal Raymond Burke

Total Consecration

Mary — she is our spiritual mother, God’s master piece, the Immaculate blueprint, and the pattern of what it means to be a holy human person—this leads us to total consecration.

If we want to defeat the darkness of Satan, the darkness within ourselves, and the darkness in the world, we must consecrate ourselves to Our Lady because she alone is the one God designed to crush the head of Satan. If we are on her side, we are on the winning side; but if we are not on her side, we are on the losing side.

Consecration means the setting aside of something for a holy purpose. The idea behind Marian consecration is the giving of oneself completely to Jesus through Mary.

Since God has given Mary special and unique privileges and placed her at the heart of Christianity as its mother, it is appropriate that we entrust ourselves totally to her, so that she can more fully conform us to Christ. This is her right as a mother. She receives us as gifts from God, and she helps us “grow up” and mature in the spiritual life.

God wants to give us to her, and He has shown us how by doing it Himself.

Who, after all, is the first one who is totally set aside for a holy purpose and entrusted to Mary? Jesus, of course. God the Father completely and totally entrusted His divine Son into her hands because she was created with the capacity to receive such a treasure. Thus, she dedicates her entire life to seeing to it that her Son is taken care of, so that He can fulfill His saving mission — God became dependent on Mary — and it is the same with us.

Total consecration is really what it means to live under the mantle of Our Lady. If Jesus Christ lived under the mantle in order to grow, fulfill his mission, and conquer the darkness, we must imitate Him and do the same. We, as her sinful and fallen children, must not deprive her of her maternal rights. She desires to nurture us, teach us, feed us, clothe us, correct us, and discipline us. This is why Jesus initiated total consecration from the cross. He entrusts John the Apostle to her, and John represents all of us. And like John, we must all strive to become beloved disciples of Jesus through Mary.

~ Summer Dress Code ~

Please recall that everyone is expected to dress with modesty and in a way befitting the house of God. Our choice of clothing is an expression of our worship; it may also affect the ability of others to worship. Dress should conceal rather than reveal. There is a sign in the vestibule that gives more details regarding proper dress. It is further expected that modesty in dress be maintained on the church grounds at all times.

We do request that the correction of visitors in this matter be left to the priests or their delegates.

Please Keep in Your Prayers ...
