Infinite Love

God “first loved us,” exclaims St. John the Apostle; and, in fact, He has loved us from all eternity. Even when we were not yet in existence, we were already in the mind of God, and seeing us, He loved us and willed to call us into existence in preference to innumerable other beings. “I have loved thee with an everlasting love; therefore, have I drawn thee, taking pity on thee.” This is how God reveals to us the story of our life, which is simply the story of His love for us. This story, once begun, never ends, because God’s love has no end; sin alone has the sad possibility of interrupting it, but even then God never ceases to love us with an infinite, eternal, immutable, most faithful love. He loves us when He consoles us, but He loves us too when He sends us trials and leaves us in distress; He loves us when He gives us joy in abundance, as well as when He afflicts us with sorrow. His consolations are love; so too are His chastisements and trials. In all the circumstances of our life, even the saddest and most painful, we are always encompassed by His love. God’s love can will nothing but good; even when He leads us by the harsh rough road of suffering, He is infallibly willing our good. God “makes us die and makes us live.... He scourges us and He saves us,” always because of His love. Thus it is not rare that He strikes hardest those whom He loves most, for, as the Holy Spirit says, “...acceptable men [are tried] in the furnace of humiliation.” St. Teresa of Jesus says: This suffering “is what the Father gave to Him whom He loved most of all [Jesus].... These, then, are His gifts in this world. He gives them in proportion to the love He bears us. He gives more to those He loves most and less to those He loves least.”

To believe in God’s love, to believe in it strongly even when He strikes us in what we hold most dear: such is the program of the soul who wishes to entrust itself blindly to infinite love!

“O my God and my infinite Wisdom, without measure and without bounds, high above all the understanding both of angels and of men! O Love, You who love me more than I can love myself or conceive of love! What amazes and bewilders me, considering what we are, is the love You had for us and still have. I am so astounded that I am beside myself.” (St. Teresa of Jesus)
(taken from Divine Intimacy, written by Fr. Gabriel of St. Mary Magdalen, O.C.D.)

From the Pastor

On behalf of our entire parish, I would like to sincerely thank Fr. Lee Perry and Fr. Zachary Akers, FSSP for all of their hard work during their time here at St. Stephen’s - Masses, confessions, baptisms, sermons, conferences, classes, home visits, hospital visits, instructions, counseling and much more. Let us welcome the two new priests who will be replacing those who are leaving: Fr. Joshua Curtis, FSSP, a classmate of Fr. Akers, and Fr. Dominic Savoie, FSSP, newly ordained. We are happy to have them assigned here. Let us remember them in prayer, as well, during this time of transition.

O God, grant that at least one of our sons may become a priest or religious brother, and one of our daughters a religious sister. We ourselves want to live as good Christians, and to guide our children always to do what is right, so that we may receive the grace, O God, to be allowed to give Thee a holy priest, brother, or sister! Amen.

(Conclude with an Our Father, Hail Mary and Glory Be)

~ Summer Dress Code ~

Please recall that everyone is expected to dress with modesty and in a way befitting the house of God. Our choice of clothing is an expression of our worship; it may also affect the ability of others to worship. Dress should conceal rather than reveal. There is a sign in the vestibule that gives more details regarding proper dress. It is further expected that modesty in dress be maintained on the church grounds at all times.

We do request that the correction of visitors in this matter be left to the priests or their delegates.
