FROM THE VICAR

Fr. Savoie: New Series on the Office of the Dead

The cataclysms of the fourteenth centuries shook Christendom to its core. The trauma was destined to change the physical church and the society in which she was centered. With the passing of the stable social structures, from the apparent stability of the papacy, tranquility of the state, material sustenance and preservation of life, one would expect ruins. The edifice of society was truly crumbling; but rather than destroying the Church, the wounds revealed her heart.

Lay devotion was altered and attuned itself to the new circumstances. With the end of everything befalling them the laity didn't simply shun the void, they considered it. In the face of uncertainty, they firmly rested on what was certain; all things have an end. They lifted their thoughts to their heavenly final-end, the end of the world and their own personal end—death.

LECTURE ONE

The Four Horsemen and the Office of the Dead meet in the 14th Century

October 18th, 6:30 Mass, 7:15 Cocktail Social, 8:00 Lecture

SUMMER DRESS CODE

Please recall that everyone is expected to dress with modesty and in a way befitting the house of God. Our choice of clothing is an expression of our worship; it may also affect the ability of others to worship. Dress should conceal rather than reveal. There is a sign in the vestibule that gives more details regarding proper dress. It is further expected that modesty in dress be maintained on the church grounds at all times. We do request that the correction of visitors in this matter be left to the priests.
