PASTOR'S COLUMN

ST. STEPHEN'S APPEARS IN THE FSSP MISSIVE

Article by Rachel Shrader

How do they do it?

It's really the question you want to ask when you see the rather long list of things going on at St. Stephen the First Martyr Parish, our apostolate in Sacramento, California. St. Stephen's was the final stop on the Missive's summer California tour, and that weekend the busy parish was holding its biggest event of the year – the annual Pig Roast in honor of its patron saint.

One of the older parishes in the Fraternity, St. Stephen's was founded in 1997 and worked out of the parishes of St. Rose and Immaculate Conception before purchasing its own church in 2002. The church was a former Lutheran building that required almost $2 million in initial renovations.

MASS ATTENDANCE NUMBERS

Averaged for the month of October

8:00 am 210

10:30 am 327

1:30 pm 251

6:00 pm 135

Total 923

SOME PRACTICAL NOTES

1. A parishioner noted that some of the youth are visibly carrying pocket knives on the Church campus. In particular, one was left in the restrooms. Please have minors stow knives in the car before coming into Church.

2. This week I received an unusual e-mail from someone that I am not familiar with, calling attention to the violation of fire safety laws, especially during the High Mass. Please be reminded that our policy is to leave aisles and throughput areas free of chairs. If necessary, we can arrange a row of chairs immediately in front of the first pews for the duration of the High Mass, and see how that works practically.

3. We have several young people entering religious life over the next few months, and many other sincerely investigating it. I believe this is certainly due in no small part to the prayers for vocations after Sunday Masses instituted by Fr. Lyons several years ago. Do please continue to remain after Mass for these important prayers if at all possible. I'm very grateful to parents explaining to their children the value of these prayers and keeping them in Church until after they are said. Please continue to pray for vocations at home, as well!
