PASTOR'S COLUMN

HOSPITALITY

I would like to express my deep gratitude to Durke and Mary Pilegaard and to all of the other volunteers for hospitality, who have worked tirelessly over the last year to make coffee and donuts available to parishioners after the Sunday 8:00 am and 10:30 am Masses. Durke and Mary have put a lot of thought and effort into the organization of hospitality and now feel ready to bring on an additional number of stable volunteers. They are asking primarily for families, preferably with teenage children, who can set up the coffee and donuts, distribute them, and clean up, on a rotating basis. Responsibilities will run from before 8:00 am Mass until clean-up is finished in the early afternoon. The hope is to find sufficient volunteers so that families will only be in the rotation once every six to eight weeks at most. Mary and Durke will be available after the 8:30 am and 10:30 am Masses to answer questions and to register volunteers.

I have made arrangements to reduce coffee and donuts temporarily to twice a month until we find sufficient volunteers.

Additionally, we are looking for business or corporate sponsors for hospitality. If you own a business and would be interested in sponsoring coffee and donuts, please inquire with Durke and Mary for more details. It is important to me that parishioners and guests do not feel pressured to pay for coffee and donuts, so we will maintain our current policy of not accepting personal cash or check donations at the kitchen counter.
