PASTOR'S COLUMN

REVOCATION OF DISPENSATION

His Most Reverend Excellency, Jaime Soto, Bishop of Sacramento

On March 13, 2020, I granted a dispensation from the obligation to attend Mass on Sundays and Holy Days of Obligation for all members of the Catholic Faithful in the Diocese of Sacramento, in order to mitigate the further spread and devastation brought about by the COVID-19 Pandemic.

Having reviewed the latest information and protocols from health officials, a general dispensation is no longer necessary. Consequently, by this decree, I hereby lift the general dispensation from the obligation to attend Mass on Sundays and Holy Days, effective Sunday, June 20, 2021. The obligation for the Catholic faithful to be present and participate in Mass on Sundays and Holy Days is hereby restored (1983 CIC c. 1247) as of that date.

Pastors and other members of the Christian faithful are counseled that individuals are not obligated to attend the Eucharist on Sunday or other obligatory solemnities if they are sick, have a vulnerable health condition, are caring for someone with a vulnerable health condition, or have other serious reasons (1983 CIC 1245; Catechism of the Catholic Church, 2181)....

Full decree is available at: <http://scd.org>.

SCREENING & FILTERING OF MEDIA

In today's world it continues to be increasingly difficult to screen movies for content incompatible with the life of virtue. All Catholics, however, are bound to observe due diligence in this regard, and this duty is especially incumbent upon those with children in the house. I want to share with you a few tools that many people have found helpful.

The first is www.kids-in-mind.com. This website is kept very current and has been very reliable. It rates movies based on three categories - purity, violence, and language - issuing a score from 0 to 10 for each. Below the movie summary and the score, the website lists details and explanations about each category. Here I would caution against reading the details for offenses against purity, unless you are certain this will not be a near occasion of sin for you. Instead it is probably better to simply look up a few movies you are familiar with and see what they are scored for purity, in order to get a proper sense of the number value given and what it means. On the other hand, the details for violence and language can be very helpful.

If for some reason the prior website doesn't list a particular movie, sometimes it can be useful to consult the "Parents guide" linked to each movie overview in www.imdb.com. However, the above caveat regarding descriptions of impurity are still germane here. Finally, the website www.commonssensemedia.org can also be quite useful, and has the additional advantage of including information for television and other digital media.

The final tool I suggest is www.vidangel.com. This is a filtering service for streaming content, both movies and television. There is a monthly subscription fee.

ADULT CATECHISM

Please consider inviting a non-Catholic friend or family member to the adult catechism classes, which will begin on August 12, and continue on second and fourth Thursday evenings (7 pm - 8:30 pm) until Easter. Inquiries may be directed to frcurtis@fssp.com. Registration forms are available in the Parish Office and Bookstore.
