PASTOR'S COLUMN

REVOCATION OF DISPENSATION

His Most Reverend Excellency, Jaime Soto, Bishop of Sacramento

On March 13, 2020, I granted a dispensation from the obligation to attend Mass on Sundays and Holy Days of Obligation for all members of the Catholic Faithful in the Diocese of Sacramento, in order to mitigate the further spread and devastation brought about by the COVID-19 Pandemic.

Having reviewed the latest information and protocols from health officials, a general dispensation is no longer necessary. Consequently, by this decree, I hereby lift the general dispensation from the obligation to attend Mass on Sundays and Holy Days, effective Sunday, June 20, 2021. The obligation for the Catholic faithful to be present and participate in Mass on Sundays and Holy Days is hereby restored (1983 CIC c. 1247) as of that date.

Pastors and other members of the Christian faithful are counseled that individuals are not obligated to attend the Eucharist on Sunday or other obligatory solemnities if they are sick, have a vulnerable health condition, are caring for someone with a vulnerable health condition, or have other serious reasons (1983 CIC 1245; Catechism of the Catholic Church, 2181)....

Full decree is available at: <http://scd.org>.

NEW CIBORIUM

This ciborium will take the place of the plainer ciborium that has been in use for many years, joining the other Gothic ciborium in the regular rotation. On the foot and base of the cup are embossed fourteen icons of the Stations of the Cross; on the lip, a beautiful icon of the Sacred Heart. The ciborium just so happened to arrive on the Feast of the Sacred Heart!

ADULT CATECHISM

Please consider inviting a non-Catholic friend or family member to the adult catechism classes, which will begin on August 12, and continue on second and fourth Thursday evenings (7 pm - 8:30 pm) until Easter. Inquiries may be directed to frcurtis@fssp.com. Registration forms are available in the Parish Office and Bookstore.
