PASTOR'S COLUMN

THANK YOU LETTER

From Sr. Rose

JMJ      June 11, 2021

Dearest St. Stephen's family in Christ,
 Praised be our Lord Jesus Christ!
 I was so moved by the beautiful spiritual bouquets you have offered on my behalf - it brought me to tears reading what you had offered for me. I am truly eternally grateful. Thanks to your generous intercession, I have been given so many graces; the effects of your prayers have been keenly felt.

I will be sure to return the favor,
 with the help of ~~of~~ Jesus, Mary, and Joseph,
 by remembering you and your intentions
 at Mass and in prayer before the Eucharist.

Please continue to pray for me and my dear sisters, as we strive to quench Our Lord's thirst to be loved in the most Blessed Sacrament.

May He bless you all abundantly and may Mary and Joseph keep you close to His Sacred Eucharistic Heart.
 Gratefully and Sincerely,
 Sr. Rose

PROVINCIAL CHAPTER

This Thursday, July 1, marks the opening of the first provincial chapter for the newly erected province constituted by the regions of the United States and Canada. A province the highest canonical status that can be granted to a territory of a religious order or society of apostolic life. The North American Province is the first of its kind for the Fraternity of Saint Peter, although it is likely that France and Germany will be erected as provinces in the future. A province is led by a provincial, who is a major superior (equivalent by law in many respects to a bishop). The provincial will have real canonical authority over the members of the province – he is not merely a representative of the superior general. He will be responsible for, among other things, the transfer of clergy and the reception of Holy Orders for seminarians. The provincial chapter is the supreme legislative body of the province. It will meet regularly every six years. Please keep the capitulants of the chapter in your prayers as they meet from July 1 to July 10.

ADULT CATECHISM
